

11th annual Teach Korea Corps

On June 27th – 28th, ERI hosted “Harmony and Order: Lessons from the Korean Peninsula” at Celentano HS in New Haven. Topics included Korean Culture in the East Asian context and a demonstration of the Korean Mask Dance Drama. Day two was an intensive Jeju becoming known as The Peace Island. The day ended with a thought-provoking discussion about the relationship of North Korea to other countries in the region and the US. incident on Jeju Island in 1948 and the lessons learned that led to historic on the Presenters included Dr. Hesung Chun Koh, Chair, and Founder of ERI, Dr. Christopher Y. Park, ERI President, Robert Osborne, ERI Board member, Peter Herndon, Chris Brennan, Robert Rhone and Max Commando, all teachers in New Haven public schools.

ERI hosts Teach Korea Corps for high school teachers as a way to develop a curriculum in their classrooms related to history, culture and current events in Korea. This year the event was opened to the public and the response was very well received. Our next TKC will be held later this year and if you would like to be on our mailing list, please let us know!

More pictures of TKC can be found at our website:
